

Discussing Blindspots

Questions for Men to Discuss

Read Galatians chapter 6 focusing on verses two through five.

- How does this verse describe someone with a blind spot?
- What does this verse tell him to do?
- What role do other people play in helping a person who has fallen into deception?

Going Deeper:

1. Have you ever been frustrated by someone's blind spot? If so, what was the blind spot that the other person had that frustrated you? Why do you think they were blind to it?
2. Have you ever been surprised by someone's reaction? A surprise that was more like, I had no idea you felt that way. What was it like?
 - a. What had they not been telling you?
 - b. What had you missed?
 - c. Were you able to resolve the issue?
3. Have you ever been frustrated by someone's blind spot? If so, what was the blind spot that the other person had that frustrated you? Why do you think they were blind to it?
4. If you are willing, share a blind spot that you are aware of that you have. How does it affect your relationships?
Common Blind Spots Men Share: Over Talker, Focused On One Topic not leaving room for others to discuss, Interrupting, Whining, Listening to respond instead of listening to understand, and Talking about self constantly.
5. Are you aware of why you are blind in this area? Do you want to change? How open are you to feedback?
6. In what ways does your relationship with God help you pinpoint and alleviate blind spots from your life? What do you wish God would do to help you with your blind spots?